Winemaker's Comments:

Named after the Gunsight Rock sitting high atop Hood Mountain, this exquisite wine continues to be one of our all-time favorites. Tinted in ruby glow, the 2018 California 'Hood Mountain' Gunsight delivers ripe plum and dark cherry on the nose. A racy fruit profile of luscious blackberry and huckleberry coats the palate with an extraordinarily balanced and voluptuous texture giving way to a lingering finish full of fresh plum and dark chocolate.
